Designer's Notes: Jesse Giambroni and Theresa Scripps

"To give the brand a more elevated tone, we used a collection of fonts with a more premium look and feel, along with introducing a mint green color, seen in many Italian packages, for a fresh nod to the Italian heritage."

The design refresh respects the brand equity of the current label, and highlights the rich family tradition of the brand.

With five generations behind the names Anthony and Dominic, the addition of the tree icon to connect the A&D letterforms represents the family tree."
